Our upscale, resort-like environment lends itself to balancing the mind-body-spirit connection, while offering an opportunity to bond with like-minded individuals. Enjoy a leisurely swim in the hot and cold plunge pools. Lounge on luxurious hammocks, or curl up with a good book amid the lush tropical foliage. Or, simply hang out with friends and bond with community like minded peeps at the "playa", the property's intimate lounge space fitted with swings and teepees. We bring together the yogi, the health guru, the party lover, the fashionista, the artist, the entrepreneur, and more, combining these complementary energies together in a space designed for health-minded socializing and creative projects.
