

BP CITY PARK | MIAMI

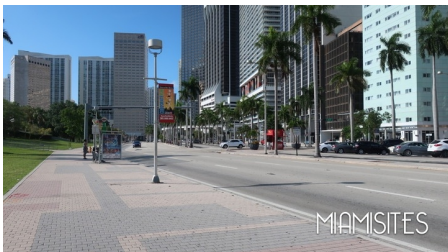

BP City Park - Versatile Urban Filming Location in Miami

BP City Park offers productions the perfect balance of city street energy and manageable control. Located along Biscayne Boulevard, this urban location provides a wide variety of backdrops that can double for different looks — all within a central Miami setting.

Highlights for Productions:

- Authentic city streetscapes with sidewalks, storefronts, and traffic flow that work for both scripted and commercial shoots.
- Varied architectural styles and multiple street looks, giving directors options without relocating.
- Easier to manage than downtown Miami, with better access, staging opportunities, and neighborhood cooperation.
- Works for film, television, commercials, music videos, fashion shoots, and still photography.
- Open sight lines and flexible shooting angles ideal for vehicle scenes, walk-and-talks, lifestyle setups, and product features.

Whether you're building the feel of a bustling Miami city street or need adaptable urban textures that can play as almost anywhere, BP City Park is a reliable choice for productions of all sizes.
